YOUR VOICE, OUR BLUEPRINT
Building A Better Future Together

5 QUESTIONS PARENTS SHOULD ASK THEIR CHILDREN THE WEEKEND TO ASSESS THEIR OVERALL DEVELOPMENT.

Physical Development:

- What physical activities or sports did you engage in this week?
- Did you try any new physical activities or exercises?
- How did you feel after participating in physical activity?
- Do you have any goals for physical development that you would like to work towards?
- Are there any challenges or concerns related to your physical health or activities that you would like to discuss?

Cognitive Development:

- Did you learn anything new at school or at any other educational activities this week?
- What was the most interesting thing you learned?
- How did you apply your problem-solving skills this week?
- Did you participate in any creative activities?
- What strategies did you use to improve your memory or focus?

Community Engagement Serve. Learn. Grow.

- Focused Group Discussions (Learners and Parents)
- Parent Quality Circles
- Integrated projects throughout the year

Join Now! Transform Tomorrow

We firmly believe that the parents are their child's first and most important teacher. Parents play a vital role in the education of their children. We happily welcome all our parents to take an active role in the education of their children and to be the active participants in our school life. We are eager to work with our parent community in supporting their children in their education. We always strive to build strong parent teacher relationship which is very important for the academic success of our students.

Final Word:

In conclusion, we want to assure you that our focus remains on providing a safe and nurturing environment, ensuring high quality education and fostering the holistic development of our students. We will continue to adapt and innovate to meet the ever-changing needs of our educational landscape. Let us work together to make International School of Cordoba as the best school, it can be. We look forward to welcoming you to be part of our vibrant learning community.
